

EARLY MUSIC SUMMER SCHOOL

Higham Hall College in England's stunning North Lake District

A very warm welcome to our fifth Early Music Summer School is offered to competent singers and players of viol, recorder and lute. This very friendly course, which covers music c1450-c1650, offers 'first study' instruction in choral/solo singing, viol, lute, and recorder playing, plus small group repertoire sessions; many optional activities (including dance, vocal consorts, 'try an instrument', mixed string-and-wind consorts, vocal workshops, musical facsimile and many more); and various plenary sessions. A marvellously rich musical cocktail amid a glorious setting (good accommodation, friendly staff, fantastic food)!

FURTHER INFORMATION

In General. This Early Music Summer School is essentially a practical course, aimed in particular at proficient singers and players of viol, recorder and (of any playing standard) lute. It will include sessions in choral and consort singing, viol consort playing, recorder consort playing; 'repertoire' sessions (usually for mixed vocal and instrumental groups); plenary sessions including sessions for mixed vocal and instrumental groups, dancing for all, and singing for all; and very many other practical activities including optional ones, which may be complemented by illustrated talks. These, collectively, are designed to provide a survey of music of the Renaissance and Early Baroque periods, namely the period c1450-c1650, thus extending from composers such as Josquin des Prez and John Taverner through to composers such as Claudio Monteverdi and Heinrich Schütz.

In Greater Detail. In practice the precise shape, and content, of the course will be determined by the number, skills and declared interests of those taking part. The specimen timetable here should be taken as a guide only:

9.00-10.30. First Study Sessions for singers (2 groups), viol, and recorder players.

11.00-12.30. Repertoire Sessions for Voices & Instruments OR Lute-Songs.

Between lunch and tea. Free / Optional Activities available for interested parties.#

16.15-18.00. Options. Mixed activities based upon preferences and specialisms, plus Tutor Lectures.

19.45-21.15. Plenary Workshops on a Special Theme. Tutors and activity vary each evening.

21.15 onwards. Social time for (additional) informal music-making, relaxing, games, bar etc.

Specific Timetables will be issued (usually electronically) to participants shortly before the beginning of the Summer School. Sessions will be listed when you are here on the EMSS Notice-board.
